

The West Michigan Potters Guild Presents
Spring Educational Workshop with Jim Connell
from Rock Hills South Carolina

Jim has been working in ceramics since 1975. He is currently a professor of ceramics at Winthrop University in Rock Hill.

Jim has juried in to 6 of the last 8 NCECA Clay National Exhibitions and 16 of the last 17 Strictly Functional Pottery Nationals. He also won a 2004 International Residency Award to China.

Date: April 30th 10am - 5pm AND May 1st 9am - 4pm

Where: Calvin College Spoelhof Center
3201 Burton St SE
Grand Rapids Michigan 49546

Registration: Members $60.00 before April 1st , $75.00 after Non Members $100.00
Fee includes coffee/bagels and lunch both days
Space is limited. Register now.
Registration form – see reverse side

For more information call Rita Shields 616-784-7652

Calvin College is located north of Burton Street along the East Beltline in Southeast Grand Rapids. Enter the south end of the campus from Burton Street, west of the East Beltline.

For a detailed campus map, go to: www.calvin.edu/map

Tentative Agenda

Friday

Jim will make pots on the wheel and show how he alters thrown pots.
He will also show how he carves on pots he has made and brought with him.

Lunch 1:00 - 1:30

In the afternoon there will be a slide presentation and then more work at the wheel.

Saturday

Jim will talk about glazing and sand blasting. He will detail his trip to China.

Lunch 12:30 - 1:00

In the afternoon he will finish the pots.

Adjournment at 4pm

Make check payable to WMPG

Mail registration to:

Rita Shields
5223 N. Division
Comstock Park, MI 49321

